

Ideas for Publicizing Social Security Town Halls With Young People

- Mail postcards to students.
- Hang Posters advertising the event in dorms.
- Work with Political Science Department to advertise.
- Hang Posters on Kiosks throughout campus.
- Place fliers in student organization or faculty campus mail boxes.
- Work with Student Government or Campus Organizations to help advertise and promote your event with other student organizations.
- Check to see if University has an all University e-mail that they send out, and see if you can get notice included.
- Ask Deans and Professors to encourage students to attend for credit, or to bring entire class to event. (Political Science, Economics and Communications Professors have been very receptive.)
- Work with University PR Department to see if they have additional unique ideas special to their school to get the word out.
- Post notice in College Newspaper or any other All-University publication.
- See if University has radio station and see if DJ's will promote event.
- Post a notice on your website's home page and see if University will post notice on their website.
- Post notice on Campus television station.
- Network with College Democrats.
- Have staff stand outside event venue prior to event and hand out fliers to passing students.